M1 (LL914)	Methods of Professional Enquiry is a University requirement for those undertaking postgraduate study. This Unit provides practical skills in record keeping, analysis of evidence, and academic research methods, standards and writing. There are formative assignments which are milestones towards the Dissertation.
M2 (LL925)	There are seven tutorial topics, each of which has an Assignment. In addition, a learning log must be completed and submitted.
M3 (LL913)	This module concerns itself with the understanding, transcription and (occasionally) translation of important classes of older documents. There are five Études. The Area Étude could be a parish, registration district, street, village, etc, across time or a focus on an aspect of ancestral tourism; the House/Building Étude could be an occupied building of any sort, across time, in any location chosen; the Options Étude is a choice from an emigration/immigration, heraldry, DNA or palaeography study. The Client Report Étude involves finding a “client” for whom you will construct a professional Family Report. The others are set Document Études.

Note that materials are typically available on a Friday, to be discussed at a Tutorial session. Assignments for submission are normally on a Monday.

MSc in Genealogical, Palaeographic and Heraldic Studies 2025-27 – This tier of the MSc is worth 60 SCQF Level 11 credits (600 hours) on its own. This starts in Semester 3 (Fri 18 Sept 2026) but there are “Milestones” within Semester 2. The major submission is the Dissertation itself (12,000-16,000) words plus a consolidated learning log, both to be submitted in early March but with mileposts to reach along the way. There is online tutor guidance on academic writing, study and research skills, etc.
